A CALL FOR PAPERS

The Chinese Accounting Review seeks manuscripts of quality research and development on a variety of current topics in accounting. The acceptable topics include international accounting and accounting education. The Review is an annual publication which emphasizes quality theoretical and applied research in accounting and related areas.

Manuscripts may be in English or Chinese. Three copies should be submitted, double-spaced, one-sided, and follow the format of The Chinese Accounting Review. The author to whom communications should be made should be indicated on the cover or title page. Papers are submitted to blind review. To submit a manuscript or to obtain additional information, contact: Editor, The Chinese Accounting Review, P.O. Box 1-444, Wenshan, Taipei, Taiwan, R.O.C.

DECISION SCIENCES INSTITUTE ANNUAL MEETING

The Decision Sciences Institute will present its 24th Annual Meeting in Washington, D.C., on November 21-23, 1993. An invitation for accounting papers was issued, but unfortunately, the submission date was March 1, 1993. Accounting research papers in a wide range of topics, including accounting history, theory, auditing, taxation, not for profit, governmental, international, financial, information systems, and others, are expected to be presented. For information, call James R. Evans, University of Cincinnati, (513) 556-7140.

INTERFACE

INTERFACE will host its Eighteenth Annual Humanities and Technology conference in Atlanta, Georgia on October 21-23, 1993 at the Penta Hotel. Although a wide range of topics are accepted, "Technology & Multimedia" and "Multicultural & Intercultural Issues and Technology" are topics to be emphasized. INTERFACE brings together professionals from many fields such as engineering, technology, computer science, history, literature, and physics for purposes of discussing issues that cross traditional disciplinary boundaries.

FSA PROCEEDINGS AVAILABLE

The Federation of Schools of Accountancy held its sixteenth annual meeting in December, 1992, in New Orleans. Its theme was "Joining Forces: A Partnership to Educate Our Profession." Featured speakers included Gerry Polansky, Dennis Beresford, and William Shenkir. Sessions included discussion regarding roles of industry, accreditors, state societies, and public accounting in accounting education. In addition, the place of liberal arts, technology, and general education in the curriculum was examined. Proceedings of the Annual Meeting, 1992, sponsored by FSA Supporting Associate, Price Waterhouse, will be available in the Spring, 1993, through the FSA Administrative Office, DePaul University, 25 E. Jackson Blvd., Chicago, IL 60604.
